Catholic Group Commends Rep. Spratt

WASHINGTON – A national Catholic social justice lobby, NETWORK, has commended U.S. Rep. John Spratt (D-SC) for his consistently strong voting record on behalf of social and economic justice. Spratt was one of 96 members of the House recognized by the group.

Sister Maureen Fenlon, the group's national coordinator, said, "NETWORK congratulates Representative Spratt for maintaining a principled commitment to just government policies and programs. By supporting efforts for peace and diplomacy, campaign finance reform, and fair and just tax policy, Representative Spratt has earned the appreciation and respect of the faith-based social justice community."

John Spratt Honored - Sister Mary Elizabeth Clark, of NETWORK, presents a "Certificate of Honor" to Congressman John Spratt in recognition of his outstanding voting record. She is joined by colleagues Bridgitte Purdue, left, and Cailin Daly, right.
